Inviting a reference to the subject cited above, I am to say that as per the instructions vide this office letter No. 5462 dt-20.03.14; the millers shall submit requisite documents at district office within 7 days from the date of delivery of CMR. This matter was discussed in the meeting of CSO's held on 6th & 7th April, 2015. It has been decided in the said meeting that the millers those who fail to submit the documents at district office within 15 days from the date of delivery for submission of bills to FCI, shall be held responsible for the delay & the interest will be charged on the millers for the period of non-submission of documents beyond 15 days. And in case, the millers fail to submit the documents within one month, the District Office & the miller shall be squarely responsible for such delay & interest lost by OSCSC shall be recovered from them equally.

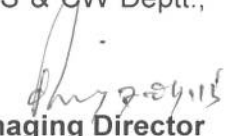

You are hereby requested to impress upon the millers of your district to submit the documents at district office within 7 days from the date of delivery of CMR for immediate submission of bills to FCI. The names of the defaulting millers are to be reported to this office for further action. In case there is delay on the part of FCI to issue documents, the same should be taken up with Area Manager of FCI under intimation to this office.

Yours faithfully

Managing Director
